GREENWOOD, Miss., April 28. (Sp.)—The preliminary trial of R. E. and J. E. McGraw, who were charged with the murder of Leonard Golden, a negro cab driver, at Ita Bena, Miss., will be held Tuesday morning at the courthouse before Judge Evans. The couple are in jail here following their arrest at Scotland, Va., the home of a negro. According to the preliminary hearing, the McGraws, who are from Ita Bena, were in the car with Golden when he was shot. They declined to give their motive for the killing of the negro.

The couple were arrested by Deputy Sheriff Douglas Smith, near Scotland, Saturday morning, at a negro cabin. They were brought to Greenwood Saturday afternoon and placed in jail. They refused to make a statement until they consulted with their attorneys. The woman, however, admitted to the Leflore officers that she fired the shot that killed the negro, but declined to give the motive. She said she was the one who was in the car when the man was killed, and she was in a hurry to get out of Ita Bena. When they reached Ita Bena, the negro driver was in the car, and they reached the curve of the road, Leonard was shot in the back of the head, thrust in his face. He said he knocked the gun from the man's hand and rolled out of the car. McGraw told the officers they came here from Clarksville Thursday afternoon, and said they were en route to Moorhead.
